POSITION: The Department of Mathematics at Oregon State University invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor position in algebra/number theory to begin September 16, 2005, subject to available fiscal support. Duties include research, and teaching at the undergraduate and graduate level. Candidates will be assessed for excellence in research and teaching. Candidates are encouraged to indicate their interest in, and accomplishments at, interaction with allied fields. Demonstrable commitment to promoting and enhancing diversity is preferred.

QUALIFICATIONS: PhD (or equivalent degree) in a mathematical discipline.

TEACHING LOAD: Includes teaching graduate and undergraduate courses (5 courses per year of 3-4 credits per course) spread over three ten week terms. This will be a tenure track, nine-month, full-time, assistant professor position, reporting to the Chair of the Department of Mathematics. Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

UNIVERSITY AND COMMUNITY: OSU is one of only two American universities to hold the Land Grant, Sea Grant, Sun Grant, and Space Grant designation and is a Carnegie Doctoral/Research-Extensive university. OSU is located in Corvallis, a community of 53,000 people situated in the Willamette Valley between Portland and Eugene. Ocean beaches, lakes, rivers, forests, high desert, the rugged Cascade and Coast Ranges, and the urban amenities of the Portland metropolitan area are all within a 100-mile drive of Corvallis. Approximately 15,600 undergraduate and 3,400 graduate students are enrolled at OSU, including 2,600 U.S. students of color and 1,100 international students.

The university has an institution-wide commitment to diversity, multiculturalism, and community. We actively engage in recruiting and retaining a diverse workforce and student body that includes members... of historically underrepresented groups. We strive to build and sustain a welcoming and supportive campus environment. OSU provides outstanding leadership opportunities for people interested in promoting and enhancing diversity, nurturing creativity, and building community.

TO APPLY: For full consideration apply by January 31, 2005. Please send letter of application (including a statement describing research and teaching objectives and experience) and curriculum vita to:
